International Conference

Language Education and Language Service -- A Dialogue

November 26-27, 2016 – Shenzhen, China

Host:

School of Humanities and Social Science
The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Shenzhen

Co-sponsor:

Translators Association of Shenzhen

In view of the fast-paced growth of translation studies in tertiary education in China and the advent of the information technology and its applications, we feel that there is a growing need for increased interactions between providers for language education and those for language service. Therefore, the school of humanities and social science of CUHK(SZ) would like to propose to co-sponsor an international conference on translation studies together with the Translators Association of Shenzhen to promote cooperation of the language educators and language service providers. The event will be held in Shenzhen on November 26-27, 2016.

Theme

Main theme of the conference is:

Language Education and Language Service -- A Dialogue

Under this main theme for discussion there are four subthemes:

(1)   New developments and needs in language service provision

(2)   New avenues for research and application for language technology

(3)   New trends in language studies for cross-cultural communication

(4)   The training of language professionals to meet market needs
